

Examples of Service Missionary Opportunities within the Europe Area

See also General Handbook 24.7.1

Opportunity	Description	Contact Details
Community Service	For young service missionaries only through JustServe (where available) and approved community charitable organizations, such as food banks, shelters, and community centers.	Country JustServe Specialist or europe@justserve.org
Family History	FamilySearch indexing, worldwide FamilySearch support, family history center assistance, and family history image processing	Torsten Kux
Member and Leader Support	Supporting wards and stakes in accomplishing the work of salvation and exaltation, as directed by the Area Presidency	Area Presidency Office
Seminaries and Institutes	Office work, recruiting and enrollment, social media, and events support, center director, teaching classes	S&I Office
Temples	Ordinance workers (for young service missionaries), laundry, housekeeping, office, cafeteria, interior maintenance, and grounds	Temple Recorder
Frankfurt Area Office	For those living in the greater Frankfurt area: office work, reception, finances, accounting, event support, social media. English communication skills required.	Caroline Giraud-Carrier
Welfare and Self-Reliance	Office support, technical support, finances, project management, employment counseling, group facilitator, teaching BYU-Pathway	Local Welfare and Self-Reliance Manager
Family Services	Addiction Recovery Program coordination, pre-mission assessments, leader consultations, psychosocial first aid, training	Welfare and Self-Reliance office
Humanitarian Aid	Humanitarian Technical Specialists are called to provide expertise and project management guidance in the Church's humanitarian major initiatives. They must be fluent in English with good written and verbal communication skills. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Maternal and Newborn Care - Teach life-saving skills to medical professionals for newborn babies born with breathing difficulties and mother care. - One or more of the following backgrounds: pediatrician, neonatologist, OBGYN, family practice MD with newborn delivery experience, labor &amp; delivery nurse or equivalent.</li> <li>• Wheelchair— Teach skills to rehabilitation professionals and others in proper wheelchair fitting, provisioning, and maintenance. - One</li> </ul>	Welfare and Self-Reliance office or europe@latterdaysaintcharities.org or more of the following backgrounds:

physical or occupational therapist; experience in wheelchair seating/provisioning preferred or equivalent.

- Clean Water – Help communities develop and maintain sources and clean water systems in less developed areas. - One or more of the following backgrounds: civil engineering, hydrology, construction management, water management, contractor management, well drilling or equivalent.
- Vision Care – Train medical eye care professionals in newer “best practices” and provide oversight, guidance and direction to vision screening projects. - One or more of the following backgrounds: ophthalmologist familiar with cataract surgery, diabetic retinopathy, other eye complications; optometrist for non-surgical screenings and refractive error projects or equivalent.
- Food Security – Help communities and families grow and produce food for nutrition and family security. - One or more of the following backgrounds: agriculture, food science, botany, biology, food production, farming, environmental science or equivalent.