

ONE BY ONE

DECEMBER 2019

Sometimes it's easy to lose the true meaning of Christmas in the excitement over twinkling lights and holiday dinners. But Christmas is all about honoring Jesus Christ. Use this calendar whenever you need to remember the true reason for celebrating. If you miss a day, don't worry! Serve when and who you can. And remember that you can #LightTheWorld all year round—every day is an opportunity to be a little more like Jesus.

SUNDAY

01

Invite someone to attend a Christmas worship service with you this month.

MONDAY

02

Think of someone who is an example of Christlike service. Highlight their example on social media.

TUESDAY

03

Donate blood today. Your selfless service can save a life.

WEDNESDAY

04

Which of your classmates or co-workers do you know the least? Eat lunch with someone new at school or work.

THURSDAY

05

Offer a prayer of gratitude for Jesus Christ and His mercy.

FRIDAY

06

Find a way to help someone in need across the world by donation to a reputable charity.

SATURDAY

07

Think of your family members. Offer to clean their room, or perform some other act of service.

08

Share a scripture with a friend or loved one who may need a boost today.

09

Hand out handwarmers to someone who spends their day outside.

10

Cheer someone on! Make plans to attend an event (holiday, athletic, cultural, etc.) to support someone you know.

11

Tell a family member right now how much you love and appreciate him/her.

12

Express how you feel about Jesus Christ by creating art, a song, a poem, or some other creative outlet, and share it with a friend or loved one.

13

Write an anonymous "thank you" to your boss, teacher, or leader and let them know what they do well.

14

Plan a one-on-one activity with a friend, or a loved one.

15

The next time you receive a text today, tell the person who sent it something you appreciate about them.

16

Learn about one of your ancestors and share their story. Need help? Visit FamilySearch.org

17

Take a vow of positivity today. Greet everyone you see with a smile.

18

Think of someone for whom you have had negative feelings lately. Try praying for them.

19

Offer to help an elderly person with an errand.

20

Donate items to your local second-hand-store or charity, or give it to someone in need.

21

Think of a single parent you know. Invite their child/children over so that the parent can have some time to do Christmas preparations, or other errands.

22

Ask God to be an answer to someone else's prayer today.

23

Think of a neighbor you don't know very well. Bring them some homemade goodies or a thoughtful gift.

24

Deliver a "reverse wish list" to a family member. Write down all the wonderful, meaningful things they have provided you with throughout your life.

25

Merry Christmas! Think of all the things the Saviour Jesus Christ has done for you, and share some of them on social media.

26

Turn the invitation to Light the World one by one every day into a New Year's resolution.
